The Living Word

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, Year C

22 June 2025

First Reading Gn 14:18-20

Melchizedek brought bread and wine.

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing:

'Blessed be Abraham by God Most High,
creator of heaven and earth,
and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.'

And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 109:1-4. R. v.4

R. You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

1. The Lord's revelation to my Master:
'Sit on my right:
I will put your foes beneath your feet.' (R).
2. The Lord will send from Zion
your sceptre of power:
rule in the midst of all your foes. (R).
3. A prince from the day of your birth
on the holy mountains;
from the womb before the daybreak I
begot you. (R).
4. The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change.
'You are a priest for ever,
a priest like Melchizedek of old.' (R).

Second Reading 1 Cor 11:23-26

Every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming the death of the Lord.

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming to his death.

Sequence (shorter form)

Behold the bread of angels, sent
For pilgrims in their banishment,
The bread for God's true children meant,
That may not unto dogs be given:

Oft in the olden types foreshadowed;
In Isaac on the altar bowed,
And in the ancient paschal food,
And in the manna sent from heaven.

Come then, good shepherd, bread divine,
Still show to us thy mercy sign;
Oh, feed us still, still keep us thine;
So may we see thy glories shine
In fields of immortality;

O thou, the wisest, mightiest, best,
Our present food, our future rest,
Come, make us each thy chosen guest,
Co-heirs of thine, and comrades blest
With saints whose dwelling is with thee.

Gospel Acclamation Jn 6:51-52

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven,
says the Lord;

whoever eats this bread will live
for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel Lk 9:11-17

They all ate and were filled.

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing.

It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate

The feeding of the five thousand in today's Gospel is one of those anticipatory sharings in the heavenly banquet of the age to come.

We say this feeding is miraculous, and it was. A major part of the miracle is in the transformation of the Twelve. Our Lord did not personally feed the five thousand. He required his followers to get involved in alleviating hunger: 'You give them something to eat,' rather than leaving the crowd to fend for themselves, or resort to market economics. When they shared the food he had blessed, the miracle of the hospitality of God was multiplied throughout the crowd – extravagantly.

And so Our Lord gave his followers and the crowd a real taste of the future generosity of God in the heavenly banquet. But, it would not have happened had the inner groups of disciples not shared Jesus' vision and got involved in what seemed to be an impossible task.

The Last Supper was the greatest anticipatory meal which Our Lord shared with his disciples. And, at Mass, we are eating and drinking the glorified humanity of our Risen Lord Jesus Christ: the life of the future.

We could pause for a moment to identify the myriad of hungers in this world and resolve to fulfil Our Lord's Command: 'You give them something to eat!' so that Divine Generosity might transform human history.

Most Reverend Shane Mackinlay announced as the next Archbishop of Brisbane

Pope Leo has this evening appointed Most Reverend Shane Mackinlay, as the new Archbishop of Brisbane. Bishop Shane will replace Archbishop Mark Coleridge, who is retiring after 13 years as the Archbishop of Brisbane and 51 years as a priest. Bishop Shane said he was deeply honoured by Pope Leo's decision to appoint him as Archbishop of Brisbane and was excited by the opportunity to serve the broader Church in a new way, even though moving on from the Diocese of Sandhurst comes with sadness: "Since I became the Bishop of Sandhurst nearly six years ago, I have been greatly encouraged and inspired by the lively faith and commitment of the people, priests and communities of the Diocese, and by the generous friendship and welcome they have offered to me personally. I am grateful to have shared in the pilgrim journey of the People of God here, where we have together begun new initiatives in living out our mission as Jesus' disciples." Bishop Shane is pleased he will be following Archbishop Mark Coleridge, who has been a friend and mentor of his for many years.

We thank Bishop Shane for his dedicated service to Sandhurst and assure him of our prayers as he prepares for this new role. A farewell Mass will be held at Sacred Heart Cathedral, Bendigo on the Sunday 7th of September 2025.

Congratulations and welcome to

Matilda Vincitorio

and

Sloane and Jaz Marks

who will be baptised at St Mary's this Sunday at 11am.

Congratulations to St Mary's Primary School students Charlie, Daniel and Evie who made their First Reconciliation last Friday. The three candidates did a wonderful job today during the special 3/4 Sacramental Mass. Thank you to the families who were able to attend and well done to the 3/4 students for being so reverent and knowledgeable!

The Grade 5/6 students attended the 10am mass this Friday 20 June with their Grade Prep buddies. It was so lovely to see the vibrant interactions between the students and Father Addin.

Ordination

Deacon Isaac Demase SJ will be ordained a priest in Sydney on July 5. He will celebrate a Thanksgiving Mass here at the 11am Mass on Sunday, July 13. A light Luncheon will follow the 11am Mass and will be held in the Pastoral Centre.

All Welcome!

MEN'S GROUP

The next Men's Group is set for Saturday 28 June at 7:30am in the St Brendan's Parish Centre.

If you have any questions please call Anthony on 58212633 (Tues or Thurs).

We are relieved to hear that Father Addin's family are safe and well following the volcano eruption in Indonesia a few days ago. Mount Lewotobi Laki-laki volcano in south-central Indonesia erupted, spewing towering columns of hot ash into the air and prompting authorities to both raise the alert to the highest level and expand the danger zone to 8km (5 miles) from the crater. Father Addin's family and home country are in our thoughts and we are praying for them.

Exciting Sunset Sessions

The final Sunset Session promises more engaging discussions and inspiring guest speaker Rob Galea on 27 June 2025. For more information contact the email below.

Pilgrimage 9-20 September 2025:

Led by Sr Annie Bond, a Sister of Saint Joseph of the Sacred Heart, this pilgrimage focuses on prayer and reflection as an integral part of the pilgrimage. The pilgrimage starts in Melbourne and ends in Sydney at the tomb of Saint Mary MacKillop. All are welcome. Contact: national.pilgrimage@mmp.org.au

SAVE THE DATE SUNDAY 28 SEPTEMBER

Fr Joe will be 'relegated to lesser duties' (ie Retire) as of Tuesday 30 September 2025.

The Parish invites you all to help us celebrate Fr Joe's wonderful vocation as a Priest in this Diocese.

He has served many people in the following Parishes (Kennington, Wangaratta, Wodonga, Papua New Guinea, Kerang, Euroa, Kennington, Heathcote, Shepparton/Dookie).

So, needless to say, we are planning a wonderful Liturgy on Sunday 28 September at the 11am Mass which will be followed by lunch in the Sacred Heart Hall (originally known as the Mons Bones Hall). More information to follow. Thank you
