St Martha's Catholic Primary School , Strathfield

I am pleased to announce, in conjunction with Fr John Hayes, the appointment of Mr Adrian Pulley as the Principal of St Martha's Catholic Primary School Strathfield, commencing at the start of the 2027 school year.

Mr Pulley is currently the Principal at St Kevin's Catholic Primary School Dee Why, in the Diocese of Broken Bay. Adrian is an experienced primary school Principal who is deeply committed to Catholic education and believes it is a great privilege for school leaders to walk alongside parents as the primary educators of their children.

Adrian leads by example through service and stewardship, honouring the history, traditions and charisms that have shaped the school. He brings with him a wealth of experience and looks forward to honouring the existing relationships, whilst working in partnership with the community to nurture and build on emerging priorities to deliver exceptional outcomes for every child.

This is an exciting time for the students, staff, and community of St Martha's Strathfield. We wholeheartedly congratulate Mr Adrian Pulley on his appointment and extend our sincere gratitude to Mr Steven Belcastro for his leadership and dedicated service to the school.

Sincerely,

Danielle Cronin
