

Middle School Newsletter

Literacy and Numeracy

In Content Knowledge students have begun learning about the American Revolution. Students have enjoyed taking notes and answering questions about their reading. In Text Construction students have been making writing pieces based off stimulus from our American Revolution text. In Numeracy students have been learning about money and have also started a unit of Space and Positioning.

Important Dates

Tuesday 10th of

December:

Transition Morning-
Students meet their new class and teachers for 2025.

Thursday 13th of

December:

Christmas Carol's
Turtlebend

Friday 20th of December:

Final day of school-
12:30- Assembly
1:30- Students departure

Skill in focus:

Grid References:

This week we will be introducing grid references to students. We ensure students know the horizontal coordinate comes first.