Around the Grounds

6A
An amazing opportunity for the Year 6 Rugby teams this week, with the honour of playing on McMahon Oval. The boys warmed-up on McMahon before a pregame chat with boys from the Marist First XV, including Captain, Tobias Graham. As the boys ran down the steps of the John Eales Grandstand you could feel the anticipation rising. The Marist boys were pumped for this one.

The 6As were right on their gameplan from the opening whistle dominating the breakdown, shutting down the opposition's momentum and getting the ball wide to the speed men. Aston James scored from a sweeping backline move orchestrated by Charlie Barnett and Tom Cross who were dominating the game from #9 and #10. Jimmy "The Jet" Corbett then burnt all the opposition defenders breaking through untouched to take Marist to a 14 – 0 lead after 10 minutes.

Complacency then set in with stationary runners and lacklustre defence allowing the St Pat's team back into the game, with 10 to go the score was 14 – 12 and Pat's were on top.

After some tough goal line defence the Marist boys went back to basics and back to the gameplan. Lachie Scanlan and Tate Miles making barnstorming runs over a tiring St Pat's defence. Field position and the slick hands of the Marist 6A backs led to Jimmy's second try. Tate sealed the game with another trademark forward move barging over to score close to the posts.

Job done!!

Marist 6A 28 – St Pat's 12

Well done boys let's continue to build as a team and finish the season well.

6B

A dynamic start from the Marist 6Bs saw them get away to an early 27 - 0 lead thanks to eagerness and energy in the ruck, as well as spacing out wide. A bit of complacency however allowed the opposition to sneak back into the game but this was short lived as Marist finished strong to walk away with a 47 - 12 win. Player of the match - Nicho Schisas.

A really good game from the boys today! Massive improvements in their passing game, being able to find where the space is and getting the ball there. This resulted in a lot of great 'team tries' being scored by our outside backs near the sideline!

A fantastic display of Marist rugby. The boys were unselfish and played relentlessly. A fine display of running rugby. We played with width and our wingers got plenty of touches of the footy. A great game all round. Well done!

The boys had a great game today. Plenty of flare and determination saw the boys get to a handy lead early. I was really impressed with how the boys gelled together as a team and stuck to the work we have been focusing on at training. Harry Nolan had a great second half with some brilliant footwork giving him the opportunity to steal plenty of metres. Around the ruck we were dominant once again and Jimmy Sexton continued to lead the charge there. Some impressive big moment plays by Jack Gallagher and Hugo Moore were what the boys needed to keep moving forward. All of the boys played well for a great win well done gentleman.

The Marist attack was outstanding but disappointingly the score line certainly doesn't reflect that - the boys were playing some great eyes-up footy and passing to the space every chance they got. The work of the Marist forwards in the breakdown was paramount to the outcome of the game. A great contest overall.

An amazing game from the boys - continuous effort put into an aggressive attack and stable defence. A few cracks meant Villa managed the occasional break-through, but our boys firing up in the last 5 saw a great try and a game-winning kick from Harrison Lewis. What a game!
