

Bayaderra (Long Neck Turtle)
Clay Workshop

Mon 7th April 10am–12pm
with Tarn Parker

Get your hands dirty - make your own terracotta bayaderra!

Use hand-building techniques and stamps to create your own bayaderra, a totem of the Yorta Yorta people that is often seen in our creation stories.

A perfect introduction to working with clay and engaging with Yorta Yorta culture.

Painting Workshop

Wed 9th April 10am–12pm
with Tarn Parker

Tell your story through paint!

Aboriginal Art is the oldest ongoing tradition of art in the world, with the earliest form being signs and symbols painted on rocks using ochres to share stories and information with others.

Explore painting techniques to develop your own visual language and experience the power of telling your story through art. Open to all levels of experience.

Galnyatj
Nanyak
Dana (Deadly
Dreaming
Path)
Art Journal Workshop

Fri 11th April 10am–12pm
with Chloe Jones

Follow your *Galnyatj Nanyak Dana!

Find your inner-creative and connect with First Nations culture by making an art journal. Explore, observe and reflect on the world around you whilst connecting with our local Country.

Experiment with mixed media, colour, texture and design as you create a book to hold your journey and stories.

Fashion Workshop

Wed 16th
April 10am–12pm
with Tarn Parker

The Power of Fashion

Discover the power of clothing to tell stories, share knowledge and connect with culture. Showcase your creativity and resourcefulness by making outfits for a paper doll using found materials and studio supplies.