Custody/access arrangements

Are there any court orders or custody access arrangements the service needs to be informed of? yes no

If yes, please specify details AND attach court orders.

LAWFUL AUTHORITY:

Parents: All parents have powers and responsibilities in relation to their children that can only be changed by a court order. The Education & Care Services National Regulations 2012 refer to these powers and responsibilities as "lawful authority". It is not affected by the relationship between the parents, such as whether or not they have lived together or are married. A court order, such as under the Family Law Act, may take away the authority of a parent, or may give it to another person.

Guardians: A guardian of a child also has lawful authority. A legal guardian is given lawful authority by a court order. The definition of "guardian" under the Education & Care Services National Law Act 2012 also covers where a child does not live with his or her parents and there are no court orders. In these cases, the guardian is the person the child lives with who has day-to-day care and control of the child.

PRIVACY STATEMENT:

Personal information collected by Council is used for municipal purposes as specified in the Local Government Act 1989. The personal information will be held securely and used solely by Council for these purposes and/or directly related purposes. Council may disclose this information to other organisations if required or permitted by legislation. The applicant understands that the personal information provided is for the above purpose and that he or she may apply to Council for access to and/or amendment of the information.

Requests for access and/or correction should be made to Council's Privacy Officer. A full copy of our Privacy Policy can be obtained from kingston.vic.gov.au
