

Family Case Management

Our program focusses on building strength and resilience within families by assisting parents, carers, children and young people to enhance their wellbeing and relationships in a more positive way. We focus on children and young people, while supporting parents and carers to meet your family goals.

Family Case Management may help you if you have children aged 0-18, and:

- Your child is displaying signs of "out of character" or "at risk" behaviour;
- Your child is experiencing a stressful life event such as family separation, grief and loss, or bullying and this impacts your kids;
- A child or young person in your family is at risk of developing a mental illness, such as depression or anxiety;
- You are having difficulty with family commitments and responsibilities and this is impacting on your kids; or
- You are not currently working with a family case manager.

Our Offices are Located in:

Our Program

The Family Rural Resilience Program (FRRP) is a free and flexible early intervention, wellbeing support service for 0-18 year olds.

Our programs are designed to build skills around wellbeing and family resilience. We aim to support you to increase your family's wellbeing, safety, connectedness and overall functioning. We provide short and long term case management as well as a range of courses to help you achieve this.

The program is open to self-referral.

This service can not accept a referral for a child who is under the age of 16 and under the care of the Minister for Family and Community Services.

All groups are free and run at various times throughout the year. Please call us if you would like to register or find out more.

This program is funded by the Australian Government Department of Social Services
