THE CENTIPEDE'S NEW SHOES!

The Centipede may like to boast he has 100 feet, although really he has 42. Photocopy this illustration as large as you can and then challenge each of your pupils to design him a new pair of shoes!

YOU WILL NEED:

- Tissue paper – in all the colours of the rainbow!
- Old magazines and newspapers
- Pritt Stick
- A photocopier
- Safety scissors

- Cut the collage materials into small squares
- Use Pritt Stick to stick the pieces to the Centipede's shoes on the illustration
- Work together as a class and don't forget his body and hat!

DREAMING BIG?

You could even build a giant peach with tissue paper and Pritt Stick, and make the other bugs to display in your classroom!

WHERE WOULD YOU GO?

In James and the Giant Peach, James and the giant bugs go on an adventure around the world! If you could go on an adventure in the Giant Peach, where would you go? Draw a map below!
