

BATPACK POP-UP PD: DIGITAL TATTOO SERIES

‘UNPACKING STUDENT AND FAMILY VOICE: THROUGH A DIGITAL TATTOO LENS’

60min free online professional development opportunity for Primary & Secondary educators, support staff, pre-service teachers & anyone working in the community services sector.

One of the privileges of running Digital Tattoo workshops in the community is listening to Young People and their families discuss their experiences with the online world.

This workshop is a reflection of youth and parent voice, their experiences, their challenges and where they feel they need support when it comes to the online world.

STAFF TESTIMONIALS:

“The presentation was fantastic and Leigh knew her stuff.”

“Could have listened all day and that was after a full day of teaching.”

“The frankness of the presenter made it very informative and interesting. I got great value from the statistics given and how we might adapt to best support our students.”
