Author Visit: Oliver Phommavanh

Oliver Phommavanh is visiting your library

Oliver Phommavanh loves to make people laugh on the page as a children's author and on the stage as a comedian. Oliver uses his experience as a primary school teacher to inspire kids to write funny stories. He has featured in Writers and Comedy festivals all across Australia and Asia. Oliver's books include Don't Follow Vee, Natural Born Loser, The Other Christy and Thai-riffic! His next book, Brain Freeze will be released later this year.

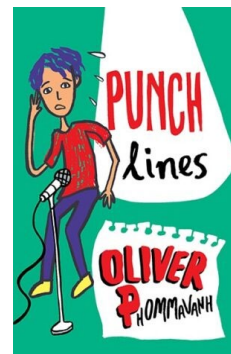

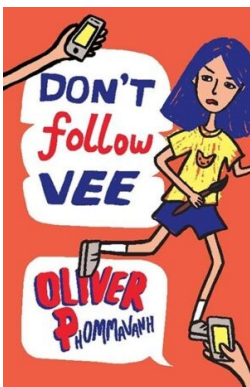

If you would like to purchase a signed book by Oliver Phommavanh please visit:

<https://www.thechildrensbookshopspeakersagency.com.au/person/phommavanh-oliver-speaker/>

Alternatively, you can call The Children's Bookshop directly on 9571 1897 to order and pay over the phone.

The Children's Bookshop will then send the book/s to the library for you to collect

Please note: The Children's Bookshop will endeavor to get books to the school in time for the author/illustrator visit. There are, however, sometimes delays beyond our control and in these cases or in the case of orders within 5 days of the visit the books may arrive after the visit has occurred.

Books will either be signed by the author/illustrator or have a signature sticker from the author/illustrator in the front cover.

Please direct any queries you may have directly to The Children's Bookshop on 02 9571 11897. Thank you!
