

Transitioning to Secondary School Webinar for Parents & Carers

This FREE Live Webinar is for Parents and Carers of children on the Autism Spectrum who are keen to hear real life practical strategies, ideas and encouragement on navigating the transition to secondary school.

This webinar is being delivered by Ebony Birch-Hanger, who has a wealth of experience supporting Students, Teachers, Parents and Carers on the Autism Spectrum through her professional and lived experiences. Ebony is a Special Education Teacher, Therapist and Educational Consultant.

- Why can the transition to secondary school be so challenging?
- What should we look for in a school and what questions should we ask?
- When should we start the transition process?
- What steps can we put into a plan for a successful transition?

Live webinar details:

Presenter: Ebony Birch-Hanger

Date: Saturday 10th October 2020

Time: 10:00am – 11:30am via Zoom

This event is FREE and places are strictly limited. Participants need to register via Eventbrite and will receive access to an online event page to receive the webinar access codes after you have completed registration. If you cannot attend after booking, please refund your ticket so that others can access this webinar. It is LIVE so there is an opportunity to ask questions.

To book your ticket:

<https://sjiwebinaresecondaryschool.eventbrite.com.au>

SJI Autism & Carer Support is a not for profit community service that aims to equip & encourage Carers, Parents & families and education professionals as they support children on the Autism Spectrum to flourish.

Thank you to the Victorian Government for funding SJI Carer initiatives under the Supporting Carers Locally funding grant