The Bergelin Scholarship

Edward Andronicus

Mr Terrence Bergelin is an Old Boy from the Class of 1955. When he passed away in 2008 he left a significant contribution to the College to establish a scholarship to be awarded to boys who were likely to enter a vocational pathway in technical studies and trades. Mr Bergelin did this in appreciation of the support that the Christian Brothers gave him throughout his schooling.

Presentation of the Year 7 and 8 Semester 2, 2019 Awards

Whenever call of duty sounds,
Whenever true hearts can make a stand
There, indeed, we shall be found
St Pius' sons will lend a hand

Throughout the years, whate'er the test,
Your sons have stood with the brave and best,
At home or abroad, upholding ideals we adore!

When faith is imperiled or culture required,
Your sons are the foremost defending the right,
Their arms are strong and their hearts inspired
With lessons learnt 'neath the Blue and Gold.

Whenever call of duty sounds,
Whenever true hearts can make a stand
There, indeed, we shall be found
St Pius' sons will lend a hand.

Throughout the years, whate'er the test,
Your sons have stood with the brave and best,
At home or abroad, upholding ideals we adore!
