

A photograph of St. Mary's Cathedral in Sydney at night. The cathedral is illuminated with warm yellow lights, highlighting its Gothic architecture, including two tall spires, a large rose window, and a central entrance. The foreground shows a paved plaza with a grid pattern. In the background, city lights and buildings are visible under a dark sky.

REQUIEM IN
D MINOR K626
MOZART

2019 Combined Catholic Schools Choral Festival

7PM, THURSDAY 24TH OCTOBER • ST MARY'S CATHEDRAL, SYDNEY

FREE CONCERT