

Hello everyone!

My name is Anna, and I am the new Italian language assistant.

I currently live in Matera, a city in southern Italy renowned for the "Sassi", a fascinating landscape of ancient houses carved into the rock. However, I was born in Imola, a small town near Bologna, famous for its racetrack!

I pursued a degree in Japanese at university, which allowed me to deepen my passion for foreign cultures and languages and spend eight months in Japan. During my time there, I had my first teaching experience at an Italian cultural center, working with both children and adults. This experience brought me closer to the field of education, something I have been interested in since childhood!

When my university announced this opportunity in Australia, I felt it was the perfect chance to combine my love for exploring new and distant places with my enthusiasm for teaching. I arrived in Melbourne about ten days ago, and I already feel at home! The city is charming, full of lovely houses and very big parks!

The school is wonderful, lively and dynamic, with so many new things to do and learn each day. I am very grateful to the staff and students for the warm welcome and for supporting me as I begin this new exciting new chapter in my life!

Warm regards,

Anna

Ciao a tutti!

Sono Anna, ho 24 anni e sono nata a Imola, una piccola cittadina vicino Bologna. Mi sono spostata spesso per il lavoro di mia mamma e ho vissuto per un paio d'anni a Roma e poi a Matera durante il liceo. Ho studiato giapponese all'università di Venezia (che ho appena finito!) e per questo sono stata in Giappone per un po' di mesi! Mi piace molto infatti studiare lingue e culture diverse dalla mia ma anche avere la possibilità di condividere ciò che mi piace di più dell'Italia!

A presto!
