What's happening in OSHC?

Last week was Children's Week, a nationwide celebration of children's rights. As an advocate of children's safety, Camp Australia educators made sure that the children were educated of their rights and assured them that their voices matter.

We made sure that we did activities at OSHC to commemorate Children's week as shown below;

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Bella painted Tony's Pinky Finger for the Polished Man Campaign	Gratitude Discussion: Why Good Shepherd Kids are so lucky!	Empathy Exercise all week to raise awareness of childhood deafness	Teach a man to fish! Discussion: Kid's Solution to Poverty	It takes a village to raise a child: Discussion Bracelets

Last week, we raised awareness about the rights of the children whilst having fun. This week, we have some amazing activities planned in OSHC. Our timetable for this week looks like this:

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Cultural Diversity: OzAsia Festival	Lanterns Shine Light to Guide our Path.Sounds Familiar?	Remembering Lost Loved Ones on Hallow-Eve History:	Lanterns Shine Light to Guide our Path.Sounds Familiar?	Intro to Scrap Booking Fun Thanks Spry Family

We look forward to making new friends and sharing the fun activities we have coming up to you.
