

MAGIS

Gifted Student Opportunities 2020 - Set 2

These are some of the many competitions and events all students may be interested in. They are great opportunities but not directly part of the Magis Program. Please see Mr Miller if you would like further details or to be nominated.

GIRLS IN STEM Curtin University Wed April 1 11.15-2.00pm

Curtin invites students to a panel discussion and Q & A session with inspiring researchers and scientists working in the field of Science and Engineering.

THE UNIVERSITY OF
WESTERN AUSTRALIA

ACADEMIUS at UWA Students in years 7-10 April 14th and 15th

3 sessions of about 2.5 hours focussed on Maths, Chemistry and Technology. This requires school nomination – please see Mr Miller to enrol in one or more sessions

CREATE - STEM Edith Cowan University Multiple sessions outside school hours

CREATE is a new “hands-on” experience offered by the School of Engineering at Edith Cowan University that has been specially designed to introduce engineering and technology products and processes to inspire young secondary school students who might be contemplating upper school subject choices in STEM (Science Technology Engineering Mathematics).

TED<sup>x</sup> Perth

x = independently organized TED event

TED-X at State Theatre Centre March 14

See outstanding talks in TED-style. The event is aimed at young people from, 14-21 years of age. See Mr Miller NOW if you wish to nominate. (Previously advertised event)

ETHICS OLYMPIAD Wed May 27 at Aquinas College

Teams of 5 compete in three Ethics Olympiad heats. Open to Senior Students Years 10-12. Please note that World Scholar’s Cup is this week beginning Friday and it is intended to send students not involved in WSC to the Ethics Olympiad. Interested students please email or see Mr Miller. This is an prestigious Australian event and we would like to send a John XXIII team for the first time. Resources are available.

Microsoft A.I. For Good Challenge ..

Students dream up an Artificial Intelligence concept that makes a difference in the world either for the earth, accessibility, humanitarian action or cultural heritage. Can be a class or small group from years 7-12. Resources/Hackathon provided.

Interested students please see/email Mr Miller - Forms/Information/Resources available..