How is a scholarship recipient selected?	A selection committee will carefully review all eligible applications and will assess the submitted details against our criteria. Incomplete applications will not be assessed, and we will not consider applications submitted after the closing date (5pm, Sunday 18 December 2022). If we require further information or clarification, we may contact you during this process. We may also ask you to undertake an informal interview to assist with our selection. The scholarships will be awarded on the recommendation of the selection committee.
How will I know whether my application was successful?	All applicants will be advised in writing (email) of the outcome of their application. It is anticipated this will happen by the end of January 2023.
How are the scholarship funds paid?	If successful you will be expected to sign a funding agreement that outlines the conditions of funding. The scholarship will be paid as a $2,000 Maldon & District Community Bank account. If you don't have an account with our Community Bank our Branch staff can set one up for you to receive the scholarship funds.
Do I need to let you know about other scholarships or awards I have received?	We do want to know this information as part of the application process. This will not rule you out for our scholarship, but it may be taken into consideration when assessing your application.
Protecting my privacy	We will keep secure all of the information you provide. The information will be reviewed by a selection committee and it will be treated confidentially. Community Bank Maldon & District treats all information provided by applicants in accordance with the Information Privacy Act 2000 . The information will only be used for the purpose of assessing the scholarship application and will not be disclosed to any other party except as required by law.
Do I have to show how I spent the funds?	Yes, you will need to provide copies of receipts at the end of the funded year of study to show us that the money was spent to support your tertiary studies.
Do I need to report back to Maldon & District Community Bank ?	Yes, we do need to hear back from you at the end of your studies in 2022. We have a simple acquittal form for you to complete to let us know how the funds helped your studies, what you used the money for and your future study and work plans. This form must be returned to the Executive Officer by 1 December 2022. We will be in contact with you before then as a reminder.

We look forward to receiving your application!
