

DAY 1

On The First Day Of camp, It Was A Slow Walk to the cabins unpacking was a simple yet Hard process, after that we visited the mine tour, I didn't go though I felt like I had homesickness, However after a talk to mum.

I felt much better and sat down at a bench for about 20 minutes, After the class left the mine tour We headed over to a small yet large bakery, We had if I'm correct butter chicken I had about 3.5 glasses of Water, After a great talk with my friends, there we headed to the cabins for short rest, After that we headed over to a light show we wore 3D glasses to.. enhance the movie as I like to call it we learned about the big bang and Gold, after the lightshow we headed straight back to the cabins for a goodnights rest..?

We woke up to about 10 minute dressing situation, after that we head over to the café' for breakfast I had a bag of sweet & chili' chips we ate for about 15 minutes, That was when we went to the red' hill national School dressing Cabin? Or shack? Anyways Our "teacher." Was very strict, She asked to dress into 1850's clothes I forgot their names So I won't going into specifics, After that We took a shortcut to the replica of the red hill national School, Oh and I didn't dress for it So I didn't participate I did watch though So we learned about our "history" after we had learned 1850's writing way's.

We went to a friendly lake where you can pan for "gold" We did this for about 30 minutes After that it was time for dinner, we headed back to the Red hill national school Cabin..? shack? We went inside, After we undressed and re-dressed To go to dinner, Dinner was at a fancy restaurant I can't remember its name of, We had spaghetti' bolognaise I had about a ounce of water, after dinner we went to a decently sized theatre, We watched 2 shows 1 short one long After the show we marched over to the cabins where we had a goodnights sleep...? Again..

I woke up to Charlie staring into my soul A grim situation it was we had to.. pack our bags for the end of camp, After that we headed over to breakfast where I had a nice cup of water after we finished breakfast we headed over to the red hill national School dressing cabin...? Shack? We got dress up then heading over the replica of the real school.

We had a few visitors including the inspector after he was done we'd go over to the parade, We watched as they marched a few gunshots later the parade was done, We went back to the school it was about 30 minutes later, We got done with school it was then We headed to the red hill national school... Cabin? Shack? We undressed and re-dressed, we headed over to the Cabins where we got our bags preparing to go home, after that I sat at the bench near the bus stop It was then the bus showed up we packed our bags into the bus and off we went, Finishing this story hope you enjoyed this camp recount.

THE END.
