

Early Leaders Program (ELP) for Year 11's at Swinburne

The Early Leaders Program (ELP) provides secondary students with the opportunity to be recognised for extra-curricular activities, making themselves attractive candidates for future employers. The ELP is open to all students who are undertaking Year 11 in 2020. Completion of the Early Leaders Program can be a great achievement to include in applications for employment and further study. Undertaking it also provides a range of valuable benefits to students.

Students can:

- Develop life skills
- Grow your confidence
- Increase your employability
- Gain recognition for achievements from a leading university
- Get out of your comfort zone and try something new

In addition to the above benefits, students who successfully complete the Early Leaders Program will be awarded credit towards the Swinburne Emerging Leaders Program, a program for enrolled Swinburne students only.

Applications for the program close on Friday 13 March 2020, and students who are keen on finding out more, or applying, should visit Early Leaders Program \(ELP\)

Towards 2022: The new Doctor of Medicine

The 21st century requires medical graduates who can thrive in complex environments and be the leaders of change. That's why we are redesigning the Doctor of Medicine (MD) program, for launch in 2022.

The University of Melbourne is currently re-designing its Doctor of Medicine (MD) program for 2022 entry.

News from Deakin University

This year Deakin has introduced a range of new or revamped courses. Some of these are profiled below:

➤ Bachelor of Human Resources Management (Psychology)

The Bachelor of Human Resource Management (Psychology) has been introduced at Deakin this year. This specialised course is aimed at developing a students' understanding of human behaviour, giving them a broader perspective of the challenges faced in HR, while at the same time preparing them for the realities of modern business. This course is particularly beneficial to students who are open to careers in both human resources and psychology. By exploring the human mind in a business context, students will have a significant advantage when performing key functions in their role in human resources (HR), from recruitment and workplace negotiations, to creating high-performance environments.

To learn more visit Bachelor of Human Resources Management \(Psychology\)

➤ Bachelor of Marketing (Psychology)

Study the Bachelor of Marketing (Psychology) to become an expert at uncovering the underlying reasons behind consumer behaviour. Students will build skills in marketing, psychology, analytics, digital literacy and business, and bring them all together to develop a deep understanding of human decision-making.

Find out more at Bachelor of Marketing \(Psychology\)

➤ Bachelor of Artificial Intelligence

Artificial intelligence is driving digital disruption, with new technology helping redefine many industries. Many companies are looking to take advantage of recent advances in artificial intelligence, which is creating a large demand for skilled professionals. Students will gain the skills required to become an artificial intelligence specialist; allowing them to work alongside software engineers, data scientists, application developers and business analysts, applying their specialist knowledge to ensure artificial intelligence is appropriately integrated into software solutions from a technical and human perspective.
