Pathway into Swinburne's Bachelor of Architecture

Passionate about architectural design? Interested in construction?

Box Hill Institute is excited to announce the new pathway into Swinburne's Bachelor of Architecture. Students who successfully complete Box Hill's 2-year Advanced Diploma of Design will gain entry into the Swinburne program.

Students enrolled in the Advanced Diploma will learn about architectural design, design history, local and national planning regulations and codes, sustainability, and emerging technologies across both residential and commercial sectors. Combining design theory with practical modelling, drafting and animating skills will equip students with the skills required to start working in industry upon completion. Or, students can continue to study and finish with a Bachelor of Design (Architecture) through the partnership with Swinburne University.

There are multiple benefits to this pathway including:

- the opportunity for Year 11 and 12 school leavers to go to university without an ATAR
- the opportunity to graduate with two qualifications
- the ability to work in an industry with one qualification, while completing the second
