HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

DEAR PARISHIONERS, we wish all mothers a Happy and Blessed Mother's Day. It is a special day to appreciate mothers or mother figures, including stepmothers, relatives, guardians, close family friends and those who would be mothers. We express our love and gratitude and thank you.

Let us show our love and appreciation for Mary our heavenly mother and our mothers. We ask our Heavenly Mother to take care of our earthly mothers. This weekend we pray and offer our Eucharistic celebration for our mothers, expectant mothers and our mothers who have died and remain so close to us in our memories.

Prayer cards will be distributed for Mother's Day at Masses this weekend by our parish Voice for Life members.

This Friday 14th May is a day of prayer and fasting for people of ALL Faiths in the context of the pandemic, supported very much by Pope Francis. I would encourage you to share in the Eucharist to pray for the end to this pandemic.
