2020 KILVONIAN KONNECTIONS ALUMNI EVENT

Friday 11 September 2020 from 6.30pm via Zoom

This year, we are thrilled to host a virtual panel of Kilvonians from a variety of sectors including the Arts, STEAM, Community and Entrepreneurship. It will be a great opportunity to engage with past students and teachers, whilst obtaining an insight into our panellists' varied careers.

Jac Benstead, Class of 2002

Entrepreneur and CEO of her own business Gorillacom, and CXO (and co-director) of a company called The Hacker Exchange (HEX).

Andrea Douglas, Class of 1986

Andrea has carved out a career as a scientist and biotech executive. She leads CSL's Organisation Transformation Office and was recently awarded the 2020 BioMelbourne Network's Women In Leadership award.

Cr. Margaret Esakoff, Class of 1970

Currently, the Mayor of Glen Eira having represented the Council in that position three times before and maintaining a council position for 17 years.

Leah Swann, Class of 1988

An award-winning author, journalist and speech writer. In April this year, her literary suspense novel Sheerwater was published to positive reviews.
