23/4/26 Dictation

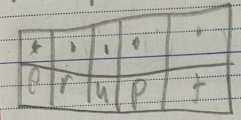

The city of London
has many famous tourist attractions.
The loud noise disrupted
the class, but the teacher
helped everyone stay calm and keep working. Sam and Mia went to the zoo
and had so much fun with their friends.
They said it was the best day ever!

EXPRESS

I was expressing my sadness by erupting with tears when I missed my cousin. I went on the "I am sad express" train. I was expressing my sadness by not playing with anyone because I was missing my cousin.

Erupt

The volcano suddenly erupted, blanketed the city, freezing it in time. In Mark Robert's crunch labs, the elephants toothpaste erupted out of the metal tube, 260 feet in the air, at probably 100 miles per hour. The kid erupted into tears when he heard his best friend was moving away. The Raspberry Fanta erupted when the kid opened it after he shook it. An eruption in the

Reading Passage Week 7: Unit 1

Sam and Robin were stressed. They had to construct a bookshelf, but the instructions were very hard to understand. They deconstructed and reconstructed the bookshelf countless times. No matter what they did, they were obstructed. Sam was ready to erupt with anger, and Robin was getting dejected. They tried to be proactive and watched a YouTube clip showing the construction steps. Unfortunately, it only led to the destruction of the bookshelf. Sam and Robin reacted by selling their books.

---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---

If you put too much pressure on a burrito it is likely to pop and send meat all over the room. Delicate things like glass and eggs will ~~break~~ break if you put too much pressure on them. Tom De Koning took a walk <sup>directly</sup> ~~directly~~ <sup>in front</sup> but he was under so much pressure from the Carlton crowd that he <sup>u</sup>shanked it.

Great work!
