Parishioners are encouraged to offer prayers and financial support to help provide continued spiritual and emotional comfort to individuals and families in Victoria. The presence of Catholic Chaplains is a crucial witness to our faith, a crucial dimension of our service of love, and a vital testimony to the value of life in all its stages. First Reading: 1 Kings 17:10-16

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink.' She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. 'Please' he said, 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.' 'As the Lord your God lives', she replied, 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.' But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel: "Jar of meal shall not be spent, jug of oil shall not be emptied, before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth."' The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:24-28

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf. And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself. Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

Gospel: Mark 12:28-34—

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.' He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called to his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

Gospel Reflection

In today's Gospel Reading, we hear the all too familiar story of the Widow's Mite. The widow who puts two small coins into the treasury. As opposed to many of the rich who put in a great deal. You see, whatever the rich people put into the treasury, for them, it seems as if it was spare change. The widow, on the other hand, observes Jesus, has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on. However, in thinking about this Gospel reading, I am convinced that this is not a story about money. 2 Pastoral Liturgy, Vol. 54, Iss. 3 [2024], Art. 28 <https://researchonline.nd.edu.au/pastoral-liturgy/vol54/iss3/28> It is a story about Christian discipleship. About how we must follow the Lord as disciples. Now, we hear lots about discipleship. About our baptismal call to follow the Risen Jesus to the cross and then to the resurrection. As we have followed our reading of Mark's Gospel, we have seen some of the demands of discipleship. That love of God must issue forth in love of neighbour. That to be great is to be in fact to be a servant. That we must prefer nothing over God. And now we have this seemingly simple story of a widow giving her two coins. How is this a story about discipleship? When we look at where this story occurs in Mark's Gospel, we have some clue. Jesus has entered Jerusalem in glory on Palm Sunday. In obedience to the Father's will, he is about to give his life. Totally. Without reserve. Not holding anything back. And this is the key to the story about the widow's mite. For she has given "everything she possessed, all she had to live on." Just as Jesus is to do with his own life is a very short time after telling this story. We are called to discipleship of the Risen Lord through our baptism. And this is a total call. We are called to put in everything, all that we have. Just like the widow. And the reality of this sort of discipleship is that is only in death that we can say that we have reached the end. That we have become the true disciple. For it is only at death that we become who we have been becoming until then. And we become this at the price of having to let go of it all.
