NOTES ABOUT OUR PHYSICAL COLLECTION

HOW ARE OUR BOOKS SORTED?

Both our fiction and non-fiction collections are organised into genres. Genres can be identified by the labels on the spines of books.

NOTES ABOUT OUR PHYSICAL COLLECTION

HOW DO I BORROW A BOOK?

Bring the book you want to borrow to the library desk together with your compass card and we will check it out to you.

All book loans are for a 2 week period after which you will need to return the book or renew it at the desk.

HOW MANY BOOKS CAN I BORROW AT ONCE?

You can borrow 5 books at any one time.

We don't have overdue fines, but long overdue books must be returned or you will be charged a replacement fee.

WHAT IS AVAILABLE ON THE SENIOR CAMPUS?

Tonia Hast operates the Words on Wheels (WOW). WOW provides students with access to texts, study guides, and a changing selection of fiction. Tonia can also provide reference, research, AV and study skill assistance to staff and students during this time.
