- Prizes Winning poets will receive $50, runners up $25
- No limit to number of entries and no line limit to poems
- The poem/s must be sent electronically as a .pdf, unless this is not available, in which case they must be presented as follows: typed on white A4 size paper, with black printing in a plain font, size 10-12, with the name of the poem headed on each subsequent page and be numbered and stapled, note: Electronic entry will avoid extra handling and cost by the entrant and avoid the possibility of a late entry due to a delay caused by Australia Post; we will print the number of copies required, at no extra cost. Poems submitted for Competition will not be returned to the Entrant.
- Poems must be the original work of the entrant and must not have been previously published for the profit of the author.
- A poem which has come first in any open written competition category is not permitted. If a poem should win one competition prior to the closing date of another competition in which the same poem is entered, the onus is on the author to notify the second competition organisers that his/her poem has become ineligible due to the contravention of entry conditions.
- The Australian Poetry Hall of Fame and Trout Fest Committee, in the strongest possible terms, discourages the inclusion, in content, of anything that could be considered offensive to any individual or group.
- Copies of poems submitted for Competition must not display the name of the Author.
- Poems submitted for Competition will not be returned to the Entrant.
- Copyright on all poems submitted for Competition remains with the Author, and copies of the poem(s) will not be subject to distribution to any outlet without the Author's permission.
- Poems are judged on entertainment value, rhyme, metre and story-telling methodology.
- Judges decisions are final and discussions are not entered into with the entrant or any representatives of the entrant including family.

If a Competitor requires a copy of their Assessment Sheet (after the Winner and Placegetters have been officially announced), they must attach a stamped self-addressed envelope to this Entry Form and tick the box below.
