

Communication Flowchart

We welcome parent contact to discuss a query or concern. Depending on the nature of the query, the most effective person to contact in the first instance is the classroom teacher or Homeroom teacher via email or phone call. If follow up is required, the query will be referred further as outlined below. When a matter would benefit from a meeting between a parent and staff member, a mutually convenient time will be arranged.

