Back to Back Theatre - Film Cardboard

Back to Back Theatre is looking for actors and extras aged 16 and over to appear in a short film that will undertake principal photography in North Geelong on the 6 – 9 of December inclusive.

The film with the working title CARDBOARD tells the story of a group of workers at a fulfilment centre who re-enact The Battle of Agincourt in cardboard suits of armour. For more details go to link below.

Finishing school or looking to start a new career?
We can help.

Maxima offers some exciting part-time and full-time traineeship opportunities for First Nations people.

Maxima is committed to providing high quality services for First Nations peoples looking to learn new skills and build rewarding careers. We understand that many First Nations people face some challenges entering the workforce and we work to bridge the gap and create meaningful training and employment opportunities.

These training and development opportunities allow successful applicants to learn new skills whilst getting paid, gain a nationally recognised Certificate III or IV qualification, as well as working alongside supportive colleagues and management.

As a national leader in First Nations training and employment, we can also offer you many different pathways to a better future. You can receive caring and supportive help from our consultants, many of whom are also First Nations. Maxima has vast experience placing First Nations trainees and apprentices with a variety of their employees across the country, including national organisations such as Australia Post and major banks and local government.

Indigenous Employment Programs (IEP)

Maxima takes great pride in building genuine and sustainable career pathways for Australia's First Nations Peoples.

For over 22 years, Maxima's First Nations-led IEP team have worked with some of Australia's largest employers providing First Nations people with full-time, part-time and school-based training and employment.
