

SOUL JAMZ

‘Soul Jamz’ is a lyric writing Music program for young people aged 12-25 that will run online via Zoom for 6 weeks. The program will cover topics such as rap, spoken word (poetry) and lyric (song) writing. At the end of the program there will be an online show case (broadcasted through our social media platforms) to provide an opportunity for participants to perform what they have learnt.

The program will be facilitated by Lynn Laufou, a 21 year old, New Zealand born Samoan who grew up in the South East of Melbourne. Lynn is a local freelance singer/songwriter, rapper & guitarist. She is also a Youth Worker in the Le Mana (Empower) Pasifika project. For more information on the project see link below:

Program Aims:

- To build a platform for Pasifika Young people or anyone that may be interested to gain some insights into the creative processes involved in lyric writing.
- To provide a safe space for personal expression and creativity for young people to tell their own stories.
