

RELATIONSHIP RETREAT DAY

Saturday 24 October 2020
10am - 4pm

How do couples stay connected?
What happens when things go wrong?
What do relationships need to stay healthy and thrive?
Enrich and celebrate your unique connection

You and your partner are invited to come along to:

- Learn new skills
- Understand more fully what healthy relationships look like and what it takes to keep a relationship loving and stable
- Learn how we all struggle and understand how things can go wrong and how to repair issues when do they occur
- Understand what it takes to help a relationship flourish and grow

Our team are caring, qualified and experienced relationship counsellors who are passionate about genuine connection with individuals and couples. We love to see couples connect and grow in order to enjoy rich, fulfilling and meaningful relationships. Stella Swan is a clinical counsellor with many years experience of working with couples and individuals.
