

RESPECTFUL RELATIONSHIPS

16 DAYS OF ACTIVISM

ART COMPETITION

ALL ENTRIES TO BE SUBMITTED BY: Friday 10th November

Winning Entries will receive a prize for themselves and for their school and will be judged across Years 7-12

Entry from any Students from Respectful Relationships schools in the Inner Eastern Metro Area

Entries must demonstrate the key themes of Gender Equity, Respectful Relationships, challenging gender-based stereotypes or the 16 Days of Activism theme 'Respect is...' and must demonstrate original work.

We welcome any medium including but not limited to original paintings, drawings, photography, digital art etc.

RESPECTFUL RELATIONSHIPS

16 Days of Activism

ART Competition

Guidelines:

- ◇ Send a copy of original piece to april.miller@education.vic.gov.au
- ◇ Try to make it the best quality possible!
- ◇ In the email with the entry, attach the completed form below.
- ◇ Any work containing photographs or videos of students MUST have appropriate permissions to distribute photographs/videos
- ◇ By entering this competition, please understand that the work will be replicated and distributed by Inner East Respectful Relationships.
- ◇ WINNERS will receive a FREE 1 Hour Professional Learning session for their school staff, run by Eastern Community Legal Centre (ECLC) on understanding the new laws around consent, cyberbullying and sexting and a book prize for themselves.

Student Name

Grade/Year Level

School

Principal or school nominee signature