

Queer Voices

A Walk in their Shoes

You are invited to hear the experiences of LGBTIAQ+ young people through live storytelling.

This session will be facilitated by Jami Jones - manager for education and engagement at Rainbow Health Victoria, part of the Australian Research Centre in Sex, Health and Society at La Trobe University.

Jami has extensive experience working with LGBTIAQ+ young people and their families, and will provide tips and guidance on how to best support your child or young person.

This session is ideal for parents, carers and important people in a child or young person's life.

Bookings are essential.
