

The Careers Department - LETS GET YOU STARTED

This website looks at your personal values, strengths, interests and gives you a personal report

It identifies 7 working styles –

Doers

Opportunists

Promoters

Technicals

Instructors

Protectors

Organisers

Some things to note .....

1. Character Personality – 1 tick not accurate, 5 ticks very accurate
2. Identifies values – looks at working style and careers that are aligned with that
3. Gives you the option of getting someone else to do this profile for you – this is not compulsory but can adjust your results – a teacher or parent is recommended because they may know you best

You will get a personal profile report – this looks at your working style and character

The report will give you the top 3 industries to suit your personality - look at the jobs in industries
