

Little People, BIG DREAMS

AMELIA EARHART

Illustrated and Written by Philippa Dugina

The story is dedicated to women of the future. May they never give, up no matter what challenges they face.

One day a little woman was born. Her name was Amelia, no one knew it at the time but she would change the world one day.

A while after Amelia was born she discovered a love for flying. She loved flying so much she went to a plane show which left her in awe.

When Ameliaa was little, her dad was an alcoholic and that made life much harder for her and put a lot of pressure on her family.

In school people would bully her for obsessing over flying because it was considered a male sport.

When Amelia got older she dreamt of being the first woman to fly over the Atlantic ocean.

So Amelia set off on her journey to fly all over the Atlantic ocean alone.

Amelia won many awards, and showed women that they can do anything if they try.

Ameila is known today for her confidence and bravery and showed everyone to stop letting fear dictate your decisions.

Amelia was born in her grandmas house in 1897 on July 24th

Amelia Earhart's first flight was in December 1920 in California. She took the flight with veteran pilot Frank Hawks.

Amelia Earhart bought her first airplane, a bright yellow Kinner Airster biplane she named The Canary, in mid 1921.

Amelia Earhart
became the first woman to fly solo and nonstop across the Atlantic Ocean on May 20-21, 1932.

Amelia Earhart
attempted a round-the-world flight, departing from Miami on June 1, 1937, with navigator
Fred Noonan.

Unfortunately her plane disappeared
over the Pacific Ocean
on July 2nd.
She was never seen again.
