

NAPCAN PREVENT CHILD ABUSE
& NEGLECT

2024 EXPRESSION OF INTEREST for NAPCAN
YOUTH SPEAK OUT
COUNCIL

Are you a passionate young person aged 13-18 in Australia? Here's your chance to elevate your voice, drive positive change, and work on exciting projects with like-minded peers. Join the National Association for Prevention of Child Abuse and Neglect (NAPCAN) Youth Speak Out (NYSO) council and become a leader in advocacy today!

What's the Objective?

The NYSO team is a dynamic group of 17 young people, aged 15-25, from all over Australia. We're on a mission to shape projects, programs, and policies within NAPCAN and beyond. We need your unique perspective to create lasting change and ensure every child in every community is safe and respected.

NAPCAN strongly values youth engagement and is inspired by the opportunities, ideas, and solutions that young people have to offer. It is important to us to have you help lead the way, working together to improve the programs and policies at NAPCAN and other organisations and to provide a platform for you to advocate, collaborate and build your skillset so that every child in every community gets a fair go!

Who Are We?

NAPCAN is a national leader in child safety and wellbeing, focusing on the prevention of child abuse and neglect. We deliver programs in schools and communities across Australia, promoting respectful relationships, consent, and child safety. Our team works closely with governments, businesses, and community organisations to create a safer world for young people. To find out more about NAPCAN, our programs and achievements you can visit our website- www.napcan.org.au

Who Are We Looking For?

We are seeking:

- Young people aged 13-18 (rural applicants highly encouraged)
- Individuals passionate about respectful relationship education
- Committed, inclusive group workers
- Eager young people wanting to expand their skills and knowledge

What's Required?

- Attend monthly online meetings that run on the last Tuesday of each month for 2.5 hours
- Attend 1 in person team meeting week a year usually held in late September
- Engage in extra opportunities to the best of your capacity to build activism, skills and embed youth voices across the prevention sector
- *Previous committee experience is not necessary

Benefits?

Payment

- Earn $31/hour, with travel costs covered for work-related travel, plus benefits for high attendance and engagement.

Support

- NYSO has a personal clinical psychologist available to members for support
- NAPCAN provides access to a counselling service for staff
- A sense of community and friendship with other members and staff involved with NYSO.

Knowledge and Skills

- Through joining this Council, members will expand their knowledge and promote discussions and change around respect, healthy relationships, unconscious biases, and consent. Members will also develop valuable and life-long leadership, problem-solving, and communication skills.

Community

- Members will gain multiple new connections to other passionate and like minded young people and thought leaders in the field through working alongside NAPCAN.

What Will I Be Doing?

- Members meet monthly to collaborate on NAPCAN's programs, policies and projects
- Members develop and lead their own projects
- Members are provided with opportunities to contribute to Government policy submissions, attend and speak at conferences and events, build skills at workshops and collaborate with other organisations on their work
