DJILBA CAMP

DATES COMING SOON

ARE YOU:

- Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander?
- Currently in year 10 - 12?
- Interested in pursuing STEM subjects?
- Keen to explore life at university?

Kulbardi Aboriginal Centre and Edith Cowan University have partnered to present Djilba Camp. This inaugural camp offers students an insight into life as a university student, through a series of unique and engaging workshops spread across 4 days. Students will engage with a series of workshops across a range of STEM-focused disciplines and will participate in leadership and capacity-building activities.
