

Volunteer Opportunity

Northcote Cricket Club

Marcus Stoinis
Australian player

Ben Abbatangelo
Captain of the Aust Indigenous team

Bill Lawry
Past Australian Captain

All ages and skill levels welcome

Do you want to become involved in supporting sport at an elite level? Do you want to develop your personal skills in a welcoming, stimulating environment? Then why not volunteer at the Northcote Cricket Club, a Premier Cricket Club where many great Australian cricketers have been developed?

Become a part of this famous sporting and community organisation and use your skills to make a difference. Opportunities exist during the week and on Saturdays. Here are some ways you can get involved:

- Cricket Scoring at Bill Lawry Oval
- Writing cricket and human interest articles and providing photos for the NCC website
- Setting up video camera for the day's play at Bill Lawry Oval and previewing video footage
- Operating the match day scoreboard at Bill Lawry Oval
- Nets Captain on training nights
- Helping to organise major club events
- Helping out with the set up at Bill Lawry Oval on Saturday mornings
- Assisting with afternoon teas and the kiosk at Bill Lawry Oval
- Maintaining the Bill Lawry Oval

Please contact the club by emailing northcotecc.manager@gmail.com or call 0421 180 308.

Bill Lawry Oval Westgarth Street Northcote