New Bachelor of Songwriting and Music Production

Get on track to showcase your creative voice in the music industry!

SAE has recently introduced the new Bachelor of Songwriting and Music Production aimed at students passionate about songwriting, beats, as well as production. This collaborative course provides a unique, hands-on, immersive experience to guide students through each level of songwriting and music production.

Students will be in a studio environment - learning contemporary songwriting strategies, music production technology and skills, nuances of performance, and recording techniques, as well as creating music for other media like games, film/screen and for live performance. Students will be assessed through the completion of industry-based projects, not theoretically based essays. These projects will contribute to their personal song/music portfolio that they be able to showcase to the music industry. There is work placement as part of the course, to provide practical experience and help build students' networks. SAE aims to equip students with employability skills, giving them professional strategies in communication and confident self-promotion.

Career as an Occupational & Environmental Physician

According to The Royal Australasian College of Physicians, Occupational & Environmental Physicians (OEP's) are highly trained medical specialists who provide services related to workers' and employers' health. The OEP's approach is holistic, recognising the health effects of occupational, social, psychological, and environmental factors. In summary:

- OEP's focus on the health effects of the relationship between workers and their work lives, at both an individual and an organisational level.

- An OEP may work for the government, the military or a large organisation. OEPs provide Independent Medical Opinions on issues such as fitness to perform particular work duties, the work-relatedness of medical conditions, and impairment assessment.
- OEP's have a unique combination of workplace knowledge and specialist training and skills to deal with patients, other practitioners, and employers.

How does one qualify to become an Occupational & Environmental Physician?

After completion of a medical degree, a compulsory intern year in hospital, and at least two additional years of general medical experience, doctors who choose to specialise as OEP's must train in a specifically designed training program. After completion of a recognised diploma, degree, or master level qualification in occupational health, the doctor enters a training program under the individual supervision of an OEP mentor.
