

Sorry Business

BROUGHT TO YOU BY THE ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER COMMITTEE

Sorry Business: A video for staff and families in our Catholic schools

In this beautiful video, members of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Committee talk about what Sorry Business means to them, and how schools can help families who are impacted by Sorry Business.

In the spirit of ongoing reconciliation, the aim of the video is to give school staff and other parents personal insights into how Sorry Business affects Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander families, with the hope that it will encourage all school communities to work together to support Aboriginal students and their families during these times.

Please share this link with your communities, upload to your websites and use in meetings and cultural awareness training
