

Your Task: Write a paragraph to describe the place you are researching for geography. Describe where your place for Geography is in the world.
Describe where it is in the world (northern, southern hemisphere, continent).
Which oceans and seas are nearby, and what are the names?
Describe the geographical features.
Describe the main city.

Nouns	Adjectival nouns	Noun groups
Architecture	Picturesque, elegant	Picturesque architecture
Buildings	Modern, spacious	Modern buildings
Bushes	Lush, green	Lush, green, bushes
Cherry blossoms	delicate, pale	Delicate, pale sakura trees
sunset	Eventide, appealing	Appealing, eventide sunset

Japan is a beautiful country with picturesque views and elegant buildings. The modern, spacious buildings sit beside peaceful, lush, green gardens. In spring, the delicate, pale sakura trees bloom, covering the streets with soft pink petals. Japan's landscapes are full of mountains, forests, and rivers, making it feel like the nature is everywhere, and When the sun sets, the sky turns into an appealing orange, and the whole place looks even more magical.

The food in Japan is a real treat! From sushi with fresh fish and rice to tofu, which is soft and smooth, there will be something for everyone. You can enjoy a warm bowl of ramen or sip on comforting miso soup with tofu and seaweed. Okonomiyaki is a savory pancake packed with tasty ingredients, and dango are sweet, sticky rice dumplings on a stick. Every dish is fresh, full of flavor, and always delicious!