BOOK WEEK PARADE

Dear Parents and Carers,

It's time to get excited about the 2019 Book Week Parade! This year the parade will be held on Tuesday 27th August at 9:30am. Your child will be invited to dress up as a book character or in a costume to match the 2019 Book Week theme 'Reading is My Secret Power'. There will be two small prizes awarded in each class:

1. Best costume.
2. Costume that displays the Children's Book Council of Australia theme, 'Reading is My Secret Power'.

The theme for CBCA Book Week 2019 is 'Reading is My Secret Power' and reading does indeed give us secret powers: the power to walk in the shoes of others through their stories; the power to escape into other worlds; the power to improve vocabulary and imagination...the list goes on. So, students may choose to come as a character from any story they enjoy reading.

We will also be holding a Book Fair after the Book Week Parade for parents and children to purchase books under the COLA area.

After the Parade, families are invited to join us for a picnic morning tea with tea and coffee provided from the canteen. Parents are asked to pack a picnic recess to share with their child/children as well.

We look forward to welcoming all of our parents and friends on this morning to watch the parade, enjoy a picnic recess and join in the fun celebrating Book Week.

Kind regards,

St Joseph's Primary School
