

THE SOCCER SUCCESS

“Hey, have you ever got a goal for your first time in soccer?” It feel’s good.

1 year ago Link, Jacob, Nick, and I were playing a soccer game at the soccer field.

First Jacob and my teammate were sprinting with the ball to goal. I said “Jacob,” and he kicked it to me.

Next the fresh grass made the ball go smoothly through it. I could hear the ball bounce forward. I felt the ball strike my feet.

I fell over on the ground and slipped on the ball but got up and kicked a goal. Mum, Pop, Nan, and other people cheered me.

I got high-fived by my team and we won the game. Link said “Mason look at the name of the field” and it said Masons.
