

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Exodus 19:2-6

From Rephidim the Israelites set out again; and when they reached the wilderness of Sinai, there in the wilderness they pitched their camp; there facing the mountain Israel pitched camp. Moses then went up to God, and the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Say this to the House of Jacob, declare this to the sons of Israel, 'You yourselves have seen what I did with the Egyptians, how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. From this you know that now, if you obey my voice and hold fast to my covenant, you of all the nations shall be my very own, for all the earth is mine. I will count you a kingdom of priests, a consecrated nation.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R./ We are his people:
the sheep of his flock.

SECOND READING

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Romans 5:6-11

When we were still helpless, at the due time, Christ died for the godless. Scarcely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person perhaps someone might undertake to die. So God proves his love for us, that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. How much more can we be sure, therefore, that, now that we have been justified by his death, we shall be saved through him from the wrath of God! For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more can we be sure that, being now reconciled, we shall be saved by his life! What is more, we even exult in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have already received reconciliation.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia!
The kingdom of God is near;
repent and believe the Good News!
Alleluia!

GOSPEL READING

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 9:36-10:8

When Jesus saw the crowds he felt sorry for them because they were harassed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest.' He summoned his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits with power to cast them out and to cure all kinds of diseases and sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, the one who was to betray him. These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them as follows: 'Do not turn your steps to pagan territory, and do not enter any Samaritan town; go rather to the lost sheep of the House of Israel. And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand. Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out devils. You received without charge, give without charge.'

Please keep in your prayers
the children preparing to receive the Eucharist for the first time.
First Eucharist Masses will be celebrated next weekend,
at both parish churches.

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR A 13th/14th JUNE, 2026

Mission and reconciliation are prominent topics in the readings. The people of the Old Covenant received their mission through Moses. We, the people of the New Covenant receive our mission through Jesus. What is our mission? We are commissioned and sent to proclaim loud and clear to all and sundry that the kingdom of God has come. The gospel passage reminds us that Jesus chooses some of his disciples for specific tasks. That is not to say that the others have nothing to do. The whole Church is missionary. Each of the baptised is duty bound to spread the Gospel to the best of his or her ability. There are many ways of doing that. But the basic and most important contribution which we can make is to live a deep Christian life

The apostles worked many miracles. In our day the miracles may not be as frequent or as evident but the power is there in the Church. Every Christian is called upon to be an influence for good in society. The presence of the kingdom is announced, Christ's mission is continued and extended when we bring the compassion of Jesus into the lives of others. Through our ordinary daily contacts with people, especially with the lonely and those on the margins, we can and ought be instruments of acceptance, reconciliation and healing. We don't have to go on the foreign missions in order to do that. For most Christians the home, the parish, the work-place are the mission territories where we spread the Gospel message as best we can.

We're invited to answer the call to deepen our understanding of synodality in parish life.

papers, with June and July being Consultation
and dialogue months for our faith communities.
For more information on the Synod please visit:

WORLD REFUGEE WEEK 14-20th June & WORLD REFUGEE DAY 20th June

2026. What started as a local initiative here in Australia has grown into an international movement, with celebrations now taking place in more than 20 countries. This year's theme recognises the milestone of Australia having issued one million humanitarian visas since the formal humanitarian program began in 1947. It reflects on how a single story of survival can shape generations to come. This year also marks the 75th anniversary of the 1951 Refugee Convention, which Australia was one of the first countries to sign. "Refugees contributions have formed the backbone of our modern multicultural society. When we lead with welcome, we create the safety and belonging necessary for people to rebuild their lives and build a better Australia for everyone." Co-CEO RCOA.

2026 PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH

APPEAL This weekend 13th / 14th June, you're invited to partner with Catholic Mission and the Church in Malawi as we support families rebuilding after devastating floods and help children access education
close to home. Through projects like St Peter's Nyamikuta Primary School, the Church is creating a place where children can learn, be nourished, and grow with dignity, regardless of their background or beliefs. As we celebrate 100 years of World Mission Day (Oct 2026), we are reminded by Pope Leo XIV that we are 'One in Christ, United in Mission'. Join with us in celebration and action by supporting this work with a compassionate gift. Use the provided, appeal envelope, scan the QR code
