

Pony Club

“Get back here,” parents yelled at horses and ponies. ‘Clot, clot, reeeiiiitttccchhh’ the gate screeched shut. Kids rode in as the gate closed.

Indi and I were riding at the Pony Club. It was last year and we were bored.

Driving to pony club my pony was getting impatient.

When it was time, parents yelled because they had to chase the horses and ponies. “Get back here,” they yelled at the top of their lungs. We could smell horse and pony sweat. There were at least 50 ponies and horses. We got ready but heard we were going on later. A rider was hitting her horse in the wrong spot, and was bucked off.

Everybody was laughing, even the horses and ponies. She was really mad at us and walked off.

By Lily