

LinkedIn Information Seminar

LinkedIn is an online professional networking platform that connects individuals via their professional interests, education, training and aspirations. It is particularly valuable for remote and regional students to help them established networks with a broad range of professionals

Presenter: Sue Ellison—Melbourne based facilitator supporting students to make valuable professional connections to kick start their careers using LinkedIn

Hamilton PAC

Thursday, 19th September

7:00—8:00 pm Free event

Booking at Trybooking

