➤ Early Achievers' Program

As a Year 12 student, do you demonstrate leadership in your school or workplace, coordinate a community initiative, volunteer in a local cultural, sporting or religious group or provide care to someone in need?

Australian Catholic University's Early Achievers' Program (EAP) recognises a students' potential to achieve great things. Gaining a place in the desired course is dependent on meeting the University's minimum entry requirements and subject prerequisites, regardless of success in the program.

The program operates at each of the University's six campuses nationally. Applications will open in August and close in October, with offers being made by the end of November 2016.

Students are encouraged to start gathering their required documentation now to submit with along their application. Failure to meet all the requirements for the EAP will result in not being considered for the program. Find out more at Early Achievers' Program

➤ New Bachelor of Teaching/Bachelor of Science in 2017

This course will prepare graduates with the skills to apply an understanding of a broad and coherent body of scientific knowledge to work in a range of science contexts within an education setting. Graduates will be qualified to teach science in high schools, including the senior years. Watch this space for information as it comes to hand!

Navitas Colleges

1. Navitas College of Public Safety (NCPS)

NCPS offers the Bachelor of Criminology and Justice. Criminology and justice studies are becoming increasingly more popular amongst Year 12 students' year-on-year, but what jobs are students completing these types of qualifications actually getting into? Criminal justice covers a broad range of topics, such as criminology, criminal psychology, criminal law and procedure, law enforcement, corrections and justice related issues. In this course you'll receive a comprehensive, theoretical education in each of these areas – from learning why people commit crimes to understanding the importance of ethics and legal processes. Graduates from Navitas College of Public Safety (NCPS) have gained roles in areas such as...

- Careers at ASIO working as intelligence officers
- Travelling overseas to train prison officers in the United Arab Emirates
- Working with Racing Victoria investigating gambling crimes and race fixing

Many NCPS students are also using the Criminology and Justice degree as a pathway to Law. To find out more about NCPS visit Navitas College of Public Safety \(NCPS\).

2. Australian College of Applied Psychology

Celebrating over 30 years in education, the Australian College of Applied Psychology (ACAP) is a leader in applied psychology education. ACAP offers a range of courses to students including counselling, psychology, case management and coaching, and the courses range from Diplomas to Bachelors. The Counselling degrees are accredited by the Psychotherapy and Counselling Federation of Australia (PACFA), and the psychology degrees recognised by the Australian Psychology Accreditation Council (APAC). Visit Australian College of Applied Psychology \(ACAP\) to find out more!

3. Health Skills Australia

Health Skills Australia is a health care education specialist and one of Australia's largest private providers of Enrolled Nursing training. Students have the option to study full-time (3 days per week over 18 months) or part-time (2 days per week over 30 months). There is 10 week clinical placement included, in a range of health care settings. Students also put their theory into practice through regular lab work in state of the art facilities, as well as during placement. To find out more about nursing courses and other allied health courses offered, visit Health Skills Australia.

Note: All Navitas Colleges are accredited by ACPET – the Australian Council for Private Education and Training. Not all Private Colleges are the same and ACPET colleges adhere to a strict code of ethics and commit to providing quality education programs.
