

Are you interested in caring for country?

Internships are available for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students in year 9 and above at the Royal Botanic Gardens Victoria, Melbourne or Cranbourne Gardens.

Internships can be designed to focus on:

- Botany (plant science)
- Horticulture
- Land Management and Ecology
- Art
- Tourism and Customer Service
- Film Making
- Teaching
- Indigenous History and Culture
- Early childhood

If you would like to know more or you would like to nominate yourself or someone else for this project please contact:
Sharon Willoughby
Manager Public Programs
Cranbourne
Royal Botanic Gardens Victoria
on 03 5990 2209 or by email at sharon.willoughby@rbg.vic.gov.au

INTERNSHIPS

FOR ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER STUDENTS