This book is dedicated to my amazing parents

Why did we have to move here? Hanna thought, here of all places? Her train of thought was interrupted by her husband

“don’t be so sad sweetheart! This will be a fresh start for us!” he continues

“it’ll be ok!”

Hanna sighs and casts her mind back to England and smiles.

Her husband continues to cut the wood for their new home.

A few years later...

Their new home is finished and Hanna is pregnant, their new home is a cozy wooden cabin in the woods. Hanna and her husband have become farmers and have witnessed the start of Melbourne being built. They have also decided the name of their child, Jack Robinson. “waaaa” the baby has been born, welcome to Australia Jack.

20 years later...

Jack wipes his brow as he digs a grave for his mother and father and looks towards the newborn city to the north. All the trees have been cleared from the hill which the city is atop. Jack parents and sets down his shovel. Then he sets out towards the city, eyes full of hope.
