

000 SCHOOL VISIT

Around 400 children recently attended a '000' event at a Dianella Primary School. Officers from Perth Police Station attended, along with firefighters, SES and St John Ambulance personnel.

Children enjoyed trying out riot shields, a fingerprint station, throwing wet sponges at officers and colouring in.

BIG-BUDGET BIKE RETURNED

Armadale Detectives recently executed a Misuse of Drugs Act search warrant at a property in Maddington. In addition to various drug and weapon items, they located a green Santa Cruz pushbike with the serial number ground off. The bike was seized and subsequent enquiries revealed it had been stolen from another Maddington address the previous weekend.

A male suspect was charged with possession of stolen property, and the bike, valued at approximately $12,000 returned to a grateful owner the following day.

BUNBURY POLICE APPRECIATED

Bunbury officers A/Sgt Dewayne Partington, 1/C Brodie Wallis and PC Hamish Kydd recently assisted local butcher Tony McLaren with updates and information regarding a successful interstate land search in Queensland, involving his daughter who was missing for a time on the Ballon River, Dirranbandi.

Mr McLaren was very appreciative of the level of empathy/support and police assistance provided, showing his appreciation by preparing a special lunch (smoked ham rolls with all the trimmings) for the staff at Bunbury.

A PIECE OF CAKE

North West Metro District Control Centre officers know the key to a happy workplace is a happy boss. District Controller S/Sgt Mo Livingstone recently entered a competition to win a cake, but unfortunately he wasn't successful.

In a happier twist to the story, Demand Management Officer SC Scott Sulley's wife is a cake-maker, and after hearing the tales of disappointment, made the team a cake of their own.

Considering the Fit for Life ethos, they're now all voluntarily committed to the treadmill for the next five years after demolishing this chocolatey delight.
