

All Hallows' School

Medicine Entry Information Evening

Potter Library,
Level 4

6 PM to
7 PM

Tuesday,
May 7th

This event presents an exceptional opportunity for students interested in pursuing studies in Medicine.

The night's agenda is packed with insightful presentations from reputable institutions, including Griffith University, Bond University, The University of Queensland, Tasmania University and James Cook University. Additionally, a panel comprising of current university students will provide valuable firsthand experiences and perspectives.

Attendees can look forward to gaining in-depth knowledge about each university's medical programs, entry requirements, campus facilities and more.

Attendance is limited so register your spot now via: This Link